Dear Pearl:

This will be the last "communication" before I see you in Atlanta. As you can see from our list of registrants, we have exceeded our original projections for attendance. We may even have to turn away a few at the very end.

It should be one of the most interesting regional institutes yet held. If the weather is nice, I know everyone will enjoy the city as much as the program.

I am forwarding, by registered mail, checks received to date for registration fees, to Nancy Kitchen at Florida State. She says she will not be at the meeting, but she can deposit funds in her account and I will send all bills to you for approval and you can send them to her for payment. I have taken the liberty of asking her to send me a check to cover a portion of my expenses prior to my leaving for Atlanta (by automobile).

I look forward to seeing you in Atlanta.

Sincerely,

Peyton R. Neal, Jr.
